| | |
|---|---|
| Name | Association of legal entities in the form of the Nuclear Society of Kazakhstan Association (NSK) |
| NSK Association | It is an association of Kazakhstani enterprises in the field of nuclear science and industry. |
| Logo | NUCLEAR SOCIETY of KAZAKHSTAN |
| Website and Social Media | http://www.nuclear.kzhttps://www.instagram.com/icae_astana/https://www.instagram.com/win_kazakhstan/https://www.facebook.com/share/1AAje3WAQL/?mibextid=wwXIfr |
| Date of Establishment | 1993 |
| Official Status | NSK is a nonprofit organization that brings together legal entities in the form of an association. |
| Structure | More than forty organizations and enterprises in the fields of production, research, and education |
| Management | President of NSK – Vladimir ShkolnikChair of the Board – Irina TazhibayevaDirector – Togzhan Seifullina |
| NSK Board of Directors | The 13 top executives of nuclear science and industry enterprises |
| Divisions | 1. Main Executive Office – Astana.2. WiN Kazakhstan - over 300 members.– Support for female specialists in the nuclear industry of the Republic of Kazakhstan.– National and international events on gender issues. Member of the WINCA Network (Women in Nuclear Central Asia).3. Information Center for Atomic Technologies (ICAT, Astana)– public outreach;– promoting the nuclear industry;– encouraging young people to pursue careers in the nuclear industry.4. Veterans of Nuclear Science, Energy, and Industry of the Republic of Kazakhstan (VNSEI)– work and support for veterans of the country's nuclear industry;– cooperation with international veterans' organizations.5. Youth branch "Nuclear potential of Kazakhstan"– Working with young professionals in the nuclear industry;– The Youth Division of NSK has branches in Kurchatov, Ust-Kamenogorsk, Almaty, and at Al-Farabi Kazakh National University (KazNU). It has approximately 300 members in total. |

| | |
|---|---|
| Publications | 1. Journal "Nuclear Society of Kazakhstan" – full-colour quarterly publication. All articles are published in three languages: Kazakh, Russian, and English. A total of 70 issues have been published. https://nuclear.kz/journal/?lang=en2. Proceedings of the "Youth Seminar on Kazakhstan's Nuclear Potential," full-color, published once a year. https://nuclear.kz/journal/npk-20.html?lang=en3. Development of brochures and booklets on radiation. Annually. |
| Further Details on Activities | The Nuclear Society of Kazakhstan participates in shaping the national scientific and technical policy in the field of the peaceful use of nuclear energy, as well as to the expert review of national and international programmes and projects in this field.The Nuclear Society of Kazakhstan actively promotes public awareness and education regarding the peaceful use of nuclear energy to develop Kazakhstan's productive capacity and improve the well-being of its citizens.In particular, NSK regularly organizes and conducts the following activities:– Round tables, conferences, and other meetings for industry professionals, including international meetings, as well as meetings involving specialists and experts for members of the public, the media, and non-governmental organizations (NGOs);– Educational and training seminars featuring industry experts and environmental NGOs for students, young people, and employees and industrial workforces;– Radioecological studies of the environment in settlements located near uranium mining enterprises, with findings presented to local residents and the administrations of the respective settlements;– Educational and training events in various regions for students and young people, aimed at improving the public image of the nuclear industry and promoting technical education. The Society also organizes career guidance competitions, subject-specific academic olympiads, and other contests for school and university students to attract young talent to the industry;– Coverage of news and achievements in Kazakhstan's nuclear industry and those of other countries through informational materials published in the media, its own publications, and social media;– Publication of popular science literature on nuclear technologies and their applications for both energy and non-energy purposes, with a focus on environmental and economic aspects;– Technical tours to nuclear industry facilities;– Public awareness initiatives aimed at combating radiophobia. |
| Cooperation | The Nuclear Society of Kazakhstan cooperates with international organizations and nuclear societies of other countries. |

| | |
|---|---|
| | Memorandums of Understanding have been signed with Nuclear societies of Russia, the United States, France, and Japan.Under these Memoranda, the nuclear societies:– promote the exchange of technical information and periodicals;– strengthen contacts and facilitate the exchange of experience through communication and meetings between delegations of both parties;– organize conferences, seminars, and business meetings on issues of mutual interest. |
| | NSK has been the representative of WiN Global in Kazakhstan and the founder of the Kazakhstan chapter, WiN Kazakhstan, since 2019.NSK is the Kazakhstan coordinator of the WINCA Network – Women in Nuclear Central Asia – an informal regional professional network bringing together experts from Kazakhstan, Kyrgyzstan, Tajikistan, Turkmenistan, and Uzbekistan working in the nuclear sector and related fields. |
| Pugwash Committee of Kazakhstan | The Pugwash Committee of Kazakhstan (PCK) is based at the office of the Nuclear Society of Kazakhstan. It was established by a decision of the Presidium of the Kazakhstan National Academy of Natural Sciences (KazNANS) dated August 4, 2017.The Pugwash Movement of Scientists was established pursuant to the Russell-Einstein Manifesto of July 9, 1955, at an international conference of scientists held on July 7-10, 1957, in Pugwash, Canada.http://pugwash.kzPresident of PCK – Vladimir Shkolnik |
| Award | Each year, the Nuclear Society of Kazakhstan presents industry awards, including the Honorary Badge of Distinction “Honored Worker of the Nuclear Industry” (First, Second, and Third Class) and the Certificate of Honor of the Nuclear Society of Kazakhstan. |
| Cooperation with Government Authorities | NSK maintains ongoing cooperation with the Agency of the Republic of Kazakhstan for Atomic Energy under the Public Outreach Action Plan on Nuclear Energy.Participation in the Attestation Commission of the Committee for Atomic Supervision and Control;Participation in the working group responsible for workforce training and development for Kazakhstan’s nuclear industry;Participation in the Public Council of the Agency of the Republic of Kazakhstan for Atomic Energy. |